This brief story of the year is a publication of the senior class of Mishawaka High School, Mishawaka, Indiana.

BITTERSWEET BRANCH LIBRARY
MISHAWAKA, INDIANA

Mr. Frank W. Chapman, Acting Principal

Mr. P. C. Emmons, whose offices are located in the high school, says that the matter of employment presents the greatest difficulty to an administrator these days. Since ten of our teachers are now in the service and more are expected to go, he finds it hard to hold the school together. Janitors and cafeteria workers are even harder to replace than teachers. Lack of supplies, due to priorities, has been another of Mr. Emmons' worries.

Mr. F. W. Chapman, our acting principal, enjoys his duties, although he has had ample opportunity to observe that high school students are not always quiet and well-mannered. Unfortunately the disciplinary measures which follow tend to interrupt the process of education. Mr. Chapman says: "In these trying times, we should develop strong character and leadership instead of losing our heads." He deplores the growing number of students who leave school as soon as they reach sixteen in order to get into the "big money".

Mr. Harry H. Hatcher, Assistant Principal

Miss Lynetta Wilson, Dean of Girls.

Mrs. Ruth Heeter, Secretary to the Principal;
Miss Helen Weinkauff,
Clerk.

Miss Lynetta Wilson, our new dean of girls, spends a tremendous amount of time checking tardiness and chronic absence among the girls. Only after such minor matters have been cleared up is she free to approach the real problems of unsatisfactory conduct and lack of adjustment, which are the true province of a dean. As a rule she finds both the girls and their parents helpful and cooperative.

With a smile on his face, Mr. H. H. Hatcher readily admits that his first love is finance administration. He has served as comptroller since 1938. "H.H.H." also enjoys his work as dean of boys. With few exceptions he finds that the boys have a good attitude toward discipline.

... and this is Our Faculty

Teachers have been told repeatedly that theirs is an essential occupation. Even though several of the ladies have cast longing eyes at the smart WAVE uniforms or dreamed of landing with the Marines, the cold fact of teacher shortage has kept them at their posts. On the whole, the men have valiantly resisted "big money" and have stayed to give basic training to future draftees. Incidentally, the job of teaching has not become any easier since parents have literally moved out of so many homes.

Adaptability is the word for many teacher activities. "Boss" Marsee has admitted girls to his print shop. Ex-dean Cravens now supervises both junior and senior high school English. "Greer" Davidson has taken over the senior play which has long been considered a major event of the year. Miss Duguid changed her name to Mrs. Roy Kohler. "Dutch" or "Casanova" Thurston will soon be known as "Sergeant" because of his success as a drill master in P. F. classes. "Daddy" Arndt turned wizard when he molded a bunch of average boys into the crew that beat Central. And how! "Perky" Perkins, burdened to the ears, finally gave up with "I'm too busy to talk to you." Miss Emily Barracks grew lovelier with an up-swept hair do, while "Cannonball" Baker took to a "Butch" hair cut. Mr. Stout emerged as master of ceremonies de luxe on the basis of his accumulation of stories.

All fifty-two of them were greatly relieved when this year's classes turned out to be smaller than usual, but they matched that with extra duties. Mr. Steele didn't even turn up to have his picture taken.

... These Are Student Leaders

Board of Control

BOARD OF CONTROL

The Board of Control is well named since it exercises control over all school finances, even to bonding the comptroller. Its twelve members approve budgets, the largest of which belongs to the athletic department, grant permission to groups who wish to organize clubs, and approve all awards. A faculty member, Martha Miller, is chairman; vice-president is Art Katt, and secretary, Mary Louise Philion. The vice-president and secretary are always students. The board meets monthly. Art Katt, Eugene Huggett, and Bud Marsee do not appear in the picture.

Student Council

Third Row: Eggert, Swadner, Cleary, Went, Rodgers, DiGirolamo, Pekari, Stanley, Katt, Birocci. Second Row: Wilson, Cochran, Vanderlin, Miss Wilson, Vance, Steinke, Roggeman. First Row: Deo, Mumby, Hirsch, Thomas, Wardell, Maltby.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, four-year-old student governing body, meets bi-monthly. President Jule Steinke has been an especially able chairman. The social committee has been busy, having arranged the dance after the Central game and the very enjoyable mid-semester dance, in addition to the regular dancing classes. The student affairs committee is responsible for the fine service flag which hangs in the auditorium. Carl Vanderlin is vice-president of the Council, Dorothy Vance is secretary, and Art Katt replaced Bob Cochran as treasurer when the latter left school to enroll in Indiana University.

A Glimpse

AT OUR STUDENTS

Manpower shortage! You've surely heard that cry from some source, very likely from the senior girls. They actually envy the underclassmen this year when confronted with living proof that there is still plenty of brawn and muscle to be found, especially in the junior class. Have you noticed the four strong men who were elected to serve as junior officers, and the sophomore representative on the Board of Control?

Of course, seniors are mighty important, but the juniors, sophomores and freshmen aren't so far behind. They also have their leaders, loafers, and vamps. They, too, go to football games and buy defense stamps. So, in due respect to them, we should like to know: What would you think if—Jeanne Ward wasn't seen doing a thousand and one helpful things for the school—Bob Paul wasn't continually roaming the halls—Arthur Brown wasn't such a wonderful speech-maker—James Otterstein had no acting ability—Janan Groff and Barbara Rufe weren't always talking in class—Bud Marsee's feet weren't so big—Lee Muldoon wasn't Miss Barracks' favorite 8th hour pupil—Russ Huston wasn't skipping school—Jerry Wiekamp and Zane Watts didn't spend their study halls running the movie projector—Joyce Walgammuth wasn't so adorable—Hattie Steffens wasn't so popular—Ray Wardell wasn't so cute?

MAINTAIN
HIGH CHARACTER STANDARDS

Senior Hi-Y

Even though five new members were initiated, Senior Hi-Y membership decreased nearly 25 percent this year. Many of the boys, among them the president, Robert Cochran, left for college at the end of the first semester. As usual, the club did a fine job on programs for the Central-Mishawaka game, and helped the Girl Reserves decorate the halls at Christmas time. Officers are Art Katt, president; John Stoeckinger, vice-president; Carl Vanderlin, secretary; Walter Edwards, treasurer.

ENGLISH VI

Second Row: Pion, Heiser, Hover, Dorbin, Squibb, Nash, Witwer. First Row: Zeiger, Caskey, Erne, Newcomer, Dubbs, Pittman, Fry.

Junior Hi-Y

Sophomore members hope to form a nucleus of capable members now, so that the club will be active during the junior and senior years. They held a few informal meetings at the Y. M. C. A. and have planned a joint meeting with the Junior Hi-Y. Officers are James Steffoff, president; James Powell, vice-president; Robert Lovett, secretary; Ralph Karlér, treasurer.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y boasts around 30 members and is the largest of the three Hi-Y clubs. It is under the capable leadership of Mr. Yaw. The juniors helped the seniors sell programs for the Central-Mishawaka game at Notre Dame stadium. The boys tried to order sweaters but, because of material shortages, were not successful. The officers are: Richard Wardell, president; Philip Goethals, vice-president; James Otterstein, secretary; Jack Kase, treasurer; Richard Brainerd, chaplain; Eugene Huggett, sergeant-at-arms.

Girl Reserve Cabinet

Standing: Barkes, G. Kersh, Ganser, Wilson, White, Miss Dunn, Eggert, Gulyanics, E. Kersh, Groff, Whitt, Birtwhistle. Seated: Miss Martin, Miss Buchanan, Heaton, Miss Nugent, Miss Barracks.

Girl Reserve

FOUR HUNDRED

The Girl Reserves is not only the largest club in school, but the largest in this section of the state, with a membership of nearly four hundred. Girl Reserves made it possible for Miss Maureen Daly, feature writer of the Chicago Tribune, to speak confidentially on "Dating Data" to A and B assemblies. Other events of the year are the Recognition Service, the County New Year's Eve Dance, the Northern Indiana Conference at Gary, Indiana, and the annual Fiesta at the "Y" in South Bend. Ellen Heaton is president, Elsie Gulyanics is vice-president, Juanita Wilson, secretary and Doris Birtwhistle, treasurer. Inter-club representatives are Helen Whitt and Shirley Jo Swartz.

Commercial Club HEARS WAC LIEUTENANT

The Commercial Club, with its 110 members, is one of the largest organizations. Some of the meetings are planned as social gatherings, others as business meetings. Members especially enjoyed the talk given by Lieutenant Helen Helen McIlroy of the WAC, who mentioned that stenographers are always included in the first group of WAC'S to be sent overseas. The club officers are Mary Louise Phillion, president; Grace Roggeman, vice-president; and Helen Steffens, secretary-treasurer. It is unfortunate that the announcement of department awards comes too late in the year to be included in this year-book.

 Riggs, Silvers, Miss Zeis.

Forum Club

MEMBERS ARE UPPERCLASSMEN

The Forum Club is a small organization of juniors and seniors who are interested in discussing and learning more about current events. Of special interest to members was the appearance of Mr. Dan Kelly, a returned soldier, who spoke of his experiences on Guadalcanal and New Caledonia. He spoke particularly of the beauty of the islands. Some topics for discussion were socialized medicine, post-war planning, race problems, and continued compulsory military training. Jean Strome is president, Bob Hughes is vice-president, and Helen Steffens is secretary-treasurer.

Standing: Heaton, Seeley, Ackenhusen, Kiracofe, Eggert, Gilbert. Seated: Grove, Christoph, Swanger, Walters.

Standing: Harrold, Greenfield, Frohwerk, Tronnes, Stein, Jontz, McLaughlin, Silvers. Seated: Rufe, Stanton, Strome, Brady, Tracy, Woodward.

With a new constitution and a new sponsor, the Speech Club joined hands with the Thespians to open the year's dramatic season. The group aims to provide speakers for bi-monthly meetings instead of calling on members to perform. Prospective members are required by the new constitution to undergo try-outs and then be voted into the club. Officers have planned a second annual spring banquet to be held jointly with the Thespians. Morris Dahl is president, Jean Strome is vice-president, and Bill Brady is secretary-treasurer.

Mishawaka

VERSUS

South Bend

National debate topic for this year is: Resolved, that the United States should join in reconstituting the League of Nations. Local debaters, members of the St. Joseph County Forensic League, competes regularly with John Adams, Riley, and Central High Schools of South Bend. Central, where a debate class meets daily during school hours, has been the heavy winner. Activities included extemporaneous speech contests and a round table on topics related to the national topic, and a series of debates. Joyce Fulp, a member of the affirmative debate team is not in the picture. Vanderlin and Miller are no longer with the squad. It is unfortunate that more good students haven't the time for such an exacting yet rewarding activity.

Second Row: M. Dahl, Fulper, Weis, Van Tilbury. First Row: V. Dahl, Stain, Voigt.

Science Club

HAS VARIED INTERESTS

The term "Science Club" is a trifle misleading since it is really made up of three separate clubs that are all affiliated with the Junior Academy of Science. The biology section is sponsored by Mr. Stine, the chemistry section by Mr. Ulmer, and the physics section by Mr. Wood. Mr. Wood is the advisor of the entire club. The membership is as large as ever, but the programs can not be as numerous as the time for such meetings is almost unobtainable.

Sponsored by Miss Baker, the Art Club enjoyed helping the Red Cross complete some of its quotas. The first semester the members made tray favors shaped like little flower pots with poinsettias in them and filled them with candies. Making portfolios of different colored cloth was the second semester project. In between times the budding artists did sketching with live models. The thirty members of the club elected Evelyn Newcomer, president; Jeanette Vance, vice-president; and Barbara Dundon, secretary-treasurer.

Spanish Club

Second Row: Rufe, Beehler, Schmidt, Vanderlin, Smith, Koch, Deo, Goethals, Brady, Hayes, Lamb. First Row: Le Blanc, Tronnes, Powell, Stamm, Fuson, Harrold, Greenfield, Fink, Salyer.

The Spanish Club is the youngest club in school. It was organized early in the first semester by interested Spanish students. Its purpose is to give members the opportunity to do things for which there isn't time in class. Future plans include buying Spanish records and securing movies to make learning easier and more fun. Arnold Smith is president, Bill Brady is vice-president, Bonnie Stamm is secretary, and Maryanne Fuson is treasurer. Miss Rosenberger is the advisor.

Service

... MOTTO OF ALL HALL GUIDES

Under the direction of Miss Zeis, the hall guides are being welded into an efficient and well-organized club. For the first time, they have a written constitution and are officially recognized by the Board of Control. The cry "Hall Guide" is a familiar one to the eight students on duty each hour. This year they have taken over the additional job of checking for locks which have been set.

Jean Tracy is president, and Charlotte Moore is secretary-treasurer.

Third Row: Brown, Ward, Goethals, Flack, Probst, Grove.

The Usher's Club is made up of eighteen boys, who serve at plays, programs, and commencement. Among the group, there are many who have been members for three years. They wear natty maroon and white uniforms, and have chevrons on their sleeves to show their length of service. After one year of service they are entitled to a sweater.

Don Hoffman is captain, Carl Vanderlin is co-captain, and Mr. Amos is in charge.

First Row: Lamb, Vanderlin, Dahl.

Act Well Your Part

To be eligible for Thespians, honorary dramatic club, a person must do outstanding work either on the stage or backstage, he must have approval by unanimous consent of the club and of Miss Davidson, the sponsor. Then there are formal and informal initiations.

This year the club donated a considerable amount of money to the National Servicemen's Library. Meetings were held at least once a month for business and social purposes. Morris Dahl was president; Jean Strome assisted him in the office of vice-president; Bill Brady recorded the minutes and gave treasurer's reports; Ella Frohwerk was scribe.

Standing: Katt, Hanley, Sanders, Heaton, Tracas, Griffis, Hughes, Trowbridge, Berlincourt, Van Lew. Seated: Voigt, Beehler, Teegarden, Riggs, Wilson, Simms.

Twice each year the teachers elect to the National Honor Society those who excel in character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Those in the picture to the left were elected in their junior year, and those in the picture to the right were elected the first semester. The juniors who were elected second semester are:

SCHOOL NEWS

ALLTOLD—First Semester

Standing: Geist, Lamb, Scheibelhut, Sargent. Seated: Miss Heimbach, Christoph, Gilbert, Bosscawen, Kunce, Swanger.

Formerly the Alltold staff, under the direction of Miss Heimbach, has been composed of students in the Journalism II class. This year, absence of a Journalism II class, lack of a linotypist in the Enterprise office, and shortage of help in the print shop gave Miss Heimbach and the staff many trying moments.

The first semester Alltold staff included eight former staff members and 2 new members, Beverly Gilbert, editor-in-chief, and Joan Christoph, business manager. The managing editor was Willadine Orton; associate editor, Dorothy Bosscawen; news, Marilyn Swanger; sports, Don Lamb; circulation, Phyllis Geist; exchanges, Lois Scheibelhut; reporters, Norma Kunce and Juanita Sargent.

Three former members and the Journalism I class made up the second semester staff. The editors were Dorothy Bosscawen and Marilyn Swanger; feature, Felicia Lester; circulation, Betty Rudduck; exchanges, Juanita Davis; sports, Don Lamb. The rest were reporters.

SPEECH I

Second Row: Nellans, Hums, Rotondi, Smith, Ackenhuse, Eckert, Haas, Kingery. First Row: Parcell, Walgammuth, Ganser, Deo, Holsinger, Rudduck, Six, Gardner.

Standing: Rider, Swanger, B. Clawson, Rudduck, Shingledecker, Lamb, Newcomer, Swartz, Bluem. Seated: Fox, Bosscawen, H. Clawson, Reed, Tronnes, Christian, Davis.

Quill and Scroll

Students who distinguish themselves on the Alltold or the Miskodeed staff are elected to the Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for high school journalists, guided by Miss Heimbach and Miss Rosenberger. Those elected were: Joyce Beehler, Bill

Brady, Marian Christian, Betty Lou Fink, Lucille Fox, Evelyn Newcomer, Mary Riggs, Janice Schmidt, Helen Steffens, Rowena Tronnes, and Jack Van Tilbury. Dorothy Bosscawen, Marian Griffis, and Marilyn Swanger were elected last year.

Standing: Strome, Beehler, Riggs, Steffens, Brady.
Seated: Bosscawen, Schmidt, Christoph, Fink.

Members of the staff of the Miskodeed found they had to be not only journalists, but also photographers, typists, picture cutters and pasters, poster makers, and doughnut salesmen. The last responsibility was added only this year in order to made additional money to meet the rising costs of year-book publishing. Both the faculty and the students liked the doughnuts so well that they sold like "hot cakes".

This year the book was done by lithography instead of customary engraving-printing combination.

What's New Around School

Collecting clothes hangers and old clothes was the main objective of the Junior Red Cross this year. Representatives elected in each of the sponsor rooms were in charge of taking dues, and selling tuberculosis seals.

During the Christmas season, students in the art department, under the direction of Miss Baker, made menu covers for servicemen. Miss Carlburg lent a helping hand in making 100 duffle bags. Sending gift boxes, holding first aid classes, and corresponding with boys in the service are other activities of the Junior Red Cross.

The newly organized Junior Izaak Walton Club, under the direction of Mr. Wood, sent Gene Weis to a summer Camp for two weeks. Gene won a prize for being the best Waltonian while staying at this camp. At their meetings films of wild life, hunting, and fishing were shown. Joint meetings were held with Washington-Clay, Central, and Washington, all of South Bend. The meeting with Central and Washington, which was held at the Izaak Walton club house, was a pot-luck supper.

Since underclassmen are not admitted to the senior Forum Club, and because those students had not time nor place to discuss current events, a junior Forum Club was organized under the direction of Miss Zeis. The discussions at the meetings were concerned with post-war conditions in countries such as Germany, Russia, and the Far East. The club also held joint meetings with the senior club.

Where could we have it? How would the place be financed? Who would be chaperones? These questions were heard frequently last fall whenever the forthcoming youth center was discussed. Talk became reality when each class in school chose a boy and a girl to act as their representatives on the Board of Directors. Bob Weisweaver, chairman of the board, worked quite hard with F. Phanor Howlett, chairman of the adult committee, to organize the center to the highest degree. A building located at 112 West Mishawaka Avenue became the object of attention.

Carpenters, painters, plumbers, and masons were employed at the expense of the city to redecorate the interior. Students worked for weeks scrubbing, sweeping, and polishing, while donations of furniture, equipment, and money were asked.

On March 12 the building was open for inspection. The following Wednesday the center was open for the first time to members only. A junior host and hostess, along with a senior host and hostess are in charge each evening that the center is open.

The success of the center does not depend upon the finances; according to Rev. Wilbur Allen, chairman of the finance committee: "We have enough funds to stay open for a year, at least!" Success does depend upon the conduct of the students while they are enjoying themselves at the center, and upon the approval of the townspeople. It will last as long as we, the students, make it last.

Principal's Office Assistants

Standing: Claeys, Baker, Rufe, Francis, McLaughlin. Kneeling: Breunlin, Trippel.

That is a snap! You often hear this said about the work done by the principal's office assistants. Contrary to student opinion, the girls have work to do and plenty of it. They check attendance, file cards, take telephone messages, deliver special announcements and fill requests of teachers.

Mrs. Ruth Heeter has seven capable girls helping her. Betty Lou Fink has seniority rights after three years' service. Norma Breunlin, who records absences both sponsor period and second hour, Ruth Baker, Betty Claeys, and Rosalie Francis have served two years. The seventh hour is especially busy because . . . well, you know the reason, and two helpers are needed then.

Small Musical Units Entertain Widely

Mishawaka High School is very proud of the tradition in good music set by the music department. However, this year the music department had the same difficulty as did all other extra curricular activities in holding its best students. This problem was partly solved by scheduling irregular rehearsals and having ensembles play all outside performances such as banquets, teas, and club programs.

In order to maintain an orchestra with full instrumentation, Miss Hackett was forced to call noon rehearsals each week. This enabled students who had to carry full schedules to play in the orchestra.

The string ensemble played approximately 45 programs throughout the year, besides their regular monthly date with the Fellowship Club. Hazel Johnson and Violet Gulyanics play violin, Betty Lemler and Elsie Gulyanics play cello and Miss Hackett plays the accompaniment.

This year the girls' double sextette also suffered a shortage. There were only eleven girls instead of the usual twelve. Another irregularity in the vocal department was the admittance of a few sophomores and a freshman to the choir. Members of the sextette are: Attea Bronzetti, Dorothy Burgess, LaVaughn Coil, Janan Groff, Mary Jane Johnson, Cecelia Herrold, Betty Rudduck, Janice Schmidt, Norma Stanton, Jean Wedsworth, and Nancy Woodward.

Visitors for miles around have come each year for eight years to hear the Vesper service. Against a background of lighted candles and the rose window, the choir has sung some familiar carols and each year added others written during the early centuries.

138 vocal students participated in the spring Music Festival. The climax of the program was Noble Cain's "Ode to America", with orchestral accompaniment. Soloists were Wilbur Dornsife, Marge Hupp, James Otterstein, and John Weis.

FEATURES STRING TRIO AND ENSEMBLE

The full orchestra of 50 members made only one appearance this year, at the spring concert. A theatre orchestra of 29 musicians furnished between-the-acts music for all dramatic performances. The trio, Betty Lou Lemler, Hazel Johnson, and Miss Hackett, shared the burden of public appearances with the popular ensemble. Miss Hackett, as well as Mr. Bowers of the band, gives opportunities for private instruction to talented students.

REHEARSALS

It is always difficult for music teachers to manage when the students have to devote their time to other subjects, but it is even more difficult for a new teacher. Such was the case in the band. Instead of finding the usual 120 piece Mishawaka band, Mr. Bowers, replacing Mr. Kraning now on duty overseas with the American Red Cross, was confronted with about 75 of the less experienced players. Arranging sectional rehearsals and dividing the groups into A and B bands for separate rehearsal, the usual schedule was carried out.

The story centers around Mrs. Bennet's determination to marry off her daughters to rich young men. Honors go to Marilyn Swanger as the lovable, fluttery Mrs. Bennet and to Rosemary Goosens in the role of Elizabeth, the rebellious, yet sensible daughter.

ter. Morris Dahl took the part of Darcy, the dignified aristocrat, whose "pride" was matched with Elizabeth's "prejudice". Comedy was added by the antics of the pompous young clergyman, Mr. Collins, portrayed by Bill Brady. Particularly amusing was his proposal to Elizabeth.

Assemblies Prove Entertaining and Educational

Teachers and students find both entertainment and educational value in the assembly programs. This year's auditorium schedule included everything from speakers from foreign countries to an Army Air Force Caravan from Baer

Field, Fort Wayne, in a recruiting drive for 17 year olds. Outstanding among the speakers were Mbonu Ojike, a native of Nigeria, and Salom Fizk, who presented a copy of his book, The Syrian Yankee, to the school library. Anna Byrd Stewart delighted everyone by quoting some of her own poetry, while Major Chen, head of the Chinese trainees at Studebakers, spoke on the differences between China and America.

The most astounding program was a soap bubble demonstration given by Mr. and Mrs. Eiffel G. Plasterer, chemistry and physics teacher from Hammond, Indiana. Another scientific program was given by Mr. Belzer of Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Belzer demonstrated recent inventions of the Bell Telephone Company. Walter Van Haitisma, an expert in aeronautics and meteorology, told of the connection between weather and flying by explaining still pictures, and Walter Stickler of Mishawaka showed motion pictures on fishing and wild life at his own Camp Idlewild in Minnesota.

Concluding the year's schedule were two student assembly programs. The sextette and the string ensemble presented an entertaining all girl assembly, and campaign speeches for student council officership were given, in which the candidates attempted to win votes without "slinging mud" at their opponents.

Our Boys are Physically Fit

Until physical fitness courses were started in high school, the only way an average boy could participate in sports was to belong to an intramural team. Now, while the junior and senior physical fitness boys are busy running the newly completed obstacle course, the sports enthusiasts from the whole school spend their noon hours playing basketball. The noon basketball teams were organized into five leagues. John Eiler's team, Harry Tagliaferri, John Chamberlin, Harry Doyle, Bob Karnes, James Burton, and Carmelo Di Giralamo, won the championship for the first semester. The second semester's finals had not been played when this book went to press. There remained the play-off between Jule Steinke's and John Eiler's teams.

Grid Season Memorable . . .

Football! What a thrill we all feel when we hear that word. That we have good football teams at Mishawaka High School has always been a fact well-known throughout the state. This year, too, the mighty Cavemen proved their worth. Coached by Russ Arndt, co-captains Bob Miltenberger and Kenny Umbaugh led their teammates through the season with only one loss, this to Washington of South Bend. The Washington defeat gave us a tie for second place with Riley of South Bend in the conference. Among the Cavemen victories was the coveted win over Central by 42-6.

The Maroon's scoring ability ran up 193 points for the club and the opponents only ground out a 64 point total for the season. The local grid crew scored an average of 21 $\frac{4}{9}$ points for each game against 7 $\frac{1}{9}$ points for the opposition.

A fast-stepping backfield and a mighty forward wall pulled out their powerful offensive early in the season and only failed to use it once; that happened in the Washington scrap.

Many local experts think that Mishawaka should have beaten Washington. One important factor that had its effect on the club was the bad luck that befell them very early in the season. Pete Crothers was out the rest of the season due to injuries he sustained in the second game. Paul Johnston didn't begin his pigskin activities until the Washington game.

Despite these disadvantages, the Maroons had one of the best seasons they have ever experienced in the now famous sports record here at Mishawaka High School thus far.

Coach Russell Arndt, running true to form since 1933, set out some smart new football strategy for his boys this year. The use of the "T" formation in the backfield gave the Maroon's opponents some nasty moments in trying to keep up with the elusive Cavemen. The knowledge and help of our assistant coaches, Ward Baker, Walter Thurston, and George Prough lightened the load for the coach.

1944 will always be remembered by sports fans as a momentous year for Mishawaka High School football followers. Yes, at last, we really licked Central. Paul Johnston and sophomore Chuck Weikel really showed those Bears that Cavemen had strength. Before the traditional game, the student body had a pep session that really had pep. We all thought that we couldn't possibly yell any louder, but we did. Yes, we did, during the game and at the victory pep session the following Monday. When the hickory stick was presented to us "for keeps" every student's face shone with happiness. Yes, we licked Central, we own a hictory stick, and we even have one claim on the next stick, ALL in one season.

Besides these glorious honors, our co-captains became near-celebrities. Bob Miltenberger was chosen all-state guard and also all-conference guard. Kenny Umbaugh was selected as an all-conference back. Kenny also was voted by his teammates as the most valuable member of this year's squad.

Half of the team are seniors and won't be back next year, but we of Mishawaka High School firmly believe that next year's team will be as great as those that went before. We are proud of our team and proud of the coaches that made them what they are.

Co-captains Firmin Adams and Hank Mostaert, both now in the service, and pitchers Bud Rehbein

Season Record Marked by Upsets

The 1943 Maroon basketball club, under Coach Ward N. "Cannonball" Baker, faced one of the toughest schedules ever played by a Mishawaka High School team. Cavemen strategy and strong determination enabled the Maroons to finish their season with a fair degree of success.

It is said that a team does not have to win all of its games to be champions. That is the feeling in regard to our 1944 basketball squad. Although they lost 9 of their regular games, they played in championship style. The ability of the Cavemen to play clean, hard ball even when losing, and their intense loyalty to their coach, marks them as one of Mishawaka's outstanding teams.

The Maroons played 18 games in all, 10 of which were conference games. Losing 5 of these and winning 5, they broke even with a conference average of .500. The record at the close of the regular season showed 9 games won and 9 games lost.

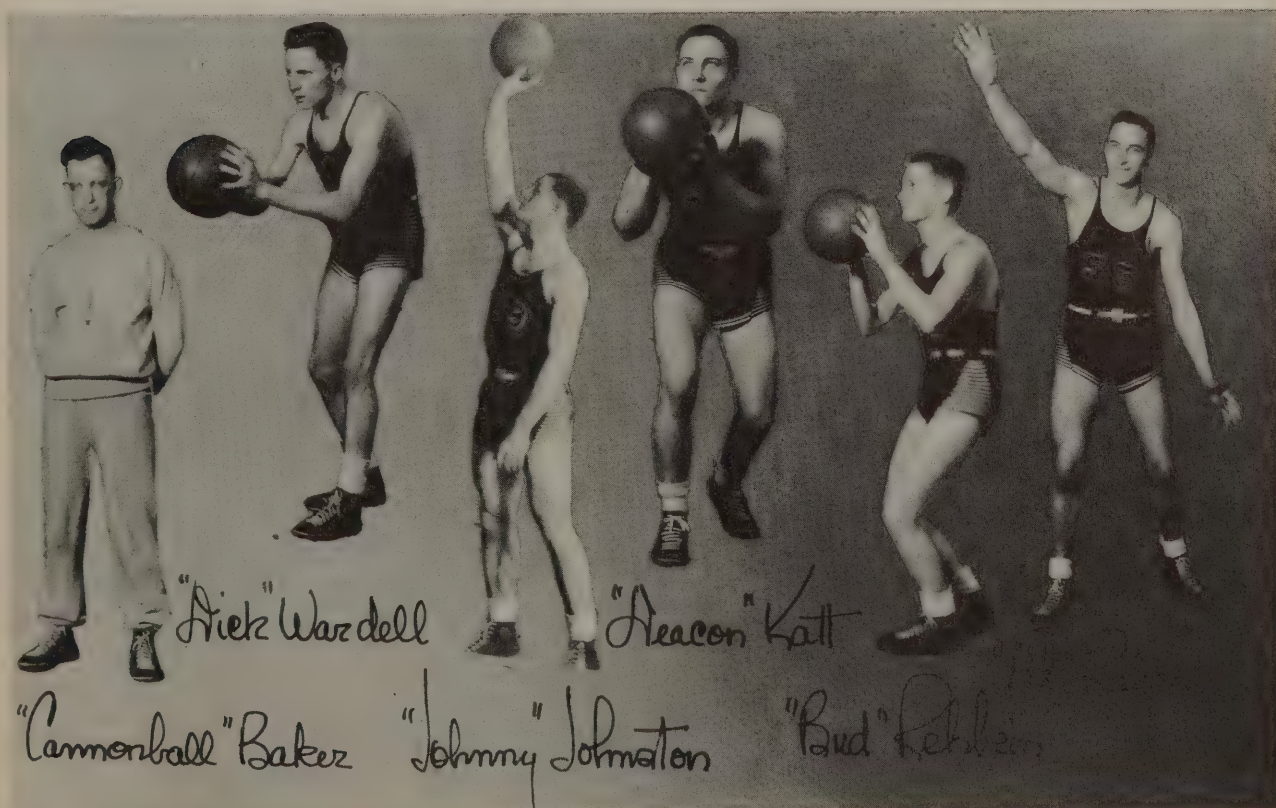

The scoring was led by four senior regulars, aided by an able senior substitute, Danny Mady. Eddie Sanders was the season's high point man, scoring a very effective 204 points. Next came Kenny Umbaugh with 139 points, Art Katt with 129, and Paul Johnston with 107.

The Cavemen opened the season by defeating a powerful Gary Lew Wallace team, 39-36. Inspired by this win, the team downed Plymouth in an exciting game, 36-35. However, the Central Bears licked the Maroons the following night, 29-16. The next week the Cavemen split two games, winning over Goshen, 32-31, but losing to a splendid Rochester quintet, 28-26. South Bend Riley and Nappanee were beaten in quick succession, the Riley victory, 38-36, coming as a complete surprise to neutral observers. However, Riley turned the tables two weeks later and downed the Maroons, 52-34. Following conference losses to Elkhart, 38-29, and to John Adams, 34-30, the Maroons were visited by North Side of Fort Wayne on January 15. This team was literally blitzed by the Cavemen. When the smoke from the final gun had cleared away, the scoreboard showed 60 points for Mishawaka and only 33 points for Fort Wayne. This game proved to be the highest scoring game for our team. However, this brilliant win was diminished by our loss to Laporte, 35-29. On January 28, the battling Cavemen again "met up" with a confident Central team in a fast-stepping contest. Mishawaka evened up the score by defeating a surprised Central team 43-32, the first defeat the Bruins had received from the Cavemen since 1939. The Maroons took a trouncing from an inferior Michigan City team, 47-41, but rebounded the next night by winning over Madison Township, 45-40. A red-hot Washington team defeated the Cavemen, 47-35, on the John Adams floor. Two nights later Mishawaka was host to Froebel of Gary and defeated them quite easily, 37-31. The last game of the season was played with Culver before a capacity crowd. We lost to Culver, 40-32. This loss was no disgrace because Culver remained unbeaten throughout their regular season and then went ahead to win their sectional and regional.

At last the sectional came. Mishawaka drew the hardest schedule of the tournament. In the first game the Cavemen defeated a very confident Washington team in a "heaty" overtime battle, 42-41. The next night the Maroons were faced by a highly favored county team, New Carlisle, which bowed to the superior Mishawaka team, 37-32. With hopes high, the Cavemen went into the semi-finals, opposed by John Adams. John Adams came out on top, 35-22, and went on to defeat Central in the finals and win the sectional.

The season is over. The cheers have died away. But in the minds and hearts of M. H. S. students is the memory of the boys who made our fine basketball season possible. At forward were Dick Wardell, Allen Rodgers, and Bud Rehbein. Paul Johnston and Art Katt played both forward and guard. At center were Eddie Sanders and Bud Marsee. At guard were Kenny Umbaugh, Danny Mady and Eugene Huggett.

Tennis and Golf FLOURISH UNDER PRESENT COACHES

Our tennis team, coached by Miss Hazel Goodwin, improved remarkably this season. Although they lost twice to Central by a score of 3 to 1, they won 7 out of 9 matches and took third place in the conference tournament held at Elkhart.

Dick Wardell, probably the best player on the team, received his second letter and his first sweater. Arnold Smith received a letter. Bob Cochran and Walter Barkes were monogram winners, while Norman Deo and Cloyd Phillips, newcomers to the team, received numerals.

The golf team, under Mr. D. L. Marsee, began its season with two wins, then lost the three remaining matches. The team was severely handicapped in that it could have no home matches because the Eberhart golf course was under water. The team had to practice in South Bend.

The highlight of the season was the Laporte Tournament for Northern Indiana schools. Although we finished in sixth place, Danny Mady made the best score in the whole tournament. He won a medal and also a large trophy.

Allen Rodgers, Danny Mady and Bud Marsee were letter winners, and Bert Olson, Donald Wade, and Dennis Donovan won monograms.

Sectional Winners RANK FOURTH AT STATE

Starting their season quietly, the Maroon thin-clads, under Coach Walter "Dutch" Thurston, lost their first track meet. This meet was a substitution for the Gary Invitational, and it was held at the Notre Dame field house. After this defeat, the Cavemen bounced back to defeat Central, John Adams, and Riley in the annual twin-city meet.

The North Siders of Fort Wayne defeated the Maroons in that city 65-45 on April 21. On April 27, the Cavemen defeated the Goshen Redskins 58-1/3—50-2/3 for their second win in the season. Mishawaka was becoming stronger as the season progressed. The meet with Elkhart on May 18 was a runaway for the Maroons who came in first in all events. Score, 71-38.

In the Eastern Division trials, which were held at Tupper Field, North Side placed first, and Mishawaka took second place with Central taking third position. At the East Chicago N. I. H. S. C. finals, which were held on May 8, all the teams that took first, second, and third positions in the big Eastern-Western conference meet were Eastern Division teams. Mishawaka placed third, with 34 points.

Casting aside all favored predictions that Central was the logical favorite in the sectional, the mighty Cavemen won the sectional with 46 points; Central came in second with a weak 26 points.

At the state finals, Mishawaka met some bad luck in the half-mile relay, when the Maroon team was fouled by the Central of Fort Wayne team as the Cavemen were leading into the last turn. In a close finish of the 100 yard dash involving Art Claeys, he was overlooked by the judges who failed to place him at all. The final results showed Burris of Muncie, first; Anderson, second; Central of Fort Wayne, third; Mishawaka, fourth.

Art Claeys and Jim De Meester, both now in the Army, were the stand-bys for Mishawaka in the 100 and 200 yard dashes. These two men came in first and second respectively in eight out of ten meets. If the 1942 track stars, Frank Steele and Bill Walsh, had been on this year's track squad, the thin-clads would have had the greatest team this part of the country has ever seen.

Track Team

Standing: Hummel, Zehrung, Barnard, Bucher, Barkes, Hahn, Jim Steffoff, Maltby, Roggeman, Pozwilka, Garman, Hulecki, Hickey, Freeze, Huggett, Lovett, Tagliaferri. Seated: Manager John Steffoff, Craig, Hirsch, Eckert, Kelter, Wardell, Edwards, Zimmerman, Wiseman, Kase, Doyle, Manager Berwyn Fred.

Girls Like Sports, Too

In the Girl's Athletic Association, speedball, basketball, volleyball, and softball were the favorite organized sports this year. Among unorganized sports the girls preferred swimming, bowling, and skating.

An ice-skating party, a theatre party, and the annual banquet at which the awards were given were the social events of the year. Nine girls received numerals and three were given letters.

The membership of 87 elected Billie Smith president, Eva Lou Harmon vice-president, and Louise Buyse, secretary-treasurer.

War Hinders Senior Activities

Manpower shortage? Even though the war has called a number of our senior boys, there are still a few left. The saying "quality is better than quantity" might well be the motto of our class. In order to prove this, let me state a few facts. During the football season the team won every game except the one with Washington. Besides making this record, the boys whipped Central by a score of 42-6. The basketball team beat Central for the first time since 1939 with a lead of eleven points. They also went as far as the semi-finals in the sectional tournament. What else could prove that we have "men"?

Do you remember when—Alice Lema was crowned Princes Mishawaka to reign at the Central game?—Our school won a hickory stick "for keeps"?—Bob Miltenberger and Kenny Umbaugh were elected honorary football captains?—Marilyn Swanger received the citizenship award given by the D. A. R.?—Seniors were forced to move from first floor lockers to the third floor because of certain incidents?—Jack Van Tilbury took pictures of everyone and everything for the Alltold and the Miskodeed?—Carl Vanderlin attended the Rotary Club luncheons as the Junior Rotarian?—Mary Louise Philion and Grace Roggeman held offices in practically all the school clubs?—the junior-senior prom was held at the Palais Royale?—Joan Christoph, Bill Brady, Ellen Heaton, Morris Dahl and Marilyn Swanger appeared in all three of the class plays, which were: "Don't Take My Penny", "Every Family Has One", and "Pride and Prejudice"?—Dorothy and Margaret Bosscawen were always playing duets together?—Howard Whitlock and June Erich attended Mishawaka High School?—the seniors caused so much excitement while getting their class rings?—the youth recreation center was just talk?

The seniors have always been noted for their many extra curricular activities. This year, however, because of the many outside interests, the school activities have been largely put aside. Beneath the gayety and fun of school is a seriousness characteristic of all high school seniors of today.
